

CALL FOR PAPERS

JOURNAL OF COMMUNICATION AND INFORMATION SYSTEMS (JCIS)

The Brazilian Telecommunications Society (SBrT), announces an agreement with the IEEE Communications Society (ComSoc) to jointly publish all the issues of its associated journal, the Journal of Communication and Information Systems (JCIS). The manuscripts are selected by an Editorial Board composed of members from the IEEE and SBrT.

The Journal Communication and Information Systems invites you to submit articles written in English, which cover the topics listed in this call for papers. The JCIS was created in 1986 by the Brazilian Telecommunications Society (SBrT), an IEEE ComSoc Sister Society, as a way to document and disseminate research results. The JCIS publishes high-quality papers aimed at an international audience. The JCIS is published quarterly, and has been indexed in its previous format by Inspec, Capes and Compendex.

Authors are advised to prepare the originals using LaTeX or Word and submit a PDF (Portable Document Format) electronic version of the paper (IEEE format) to the Editors-in-Chief. The SBrT web page www.sbrt.com.br has more information for Authors. Information can also be found at the IECOM webpage www.iecom.org.br.

Editors-in-Chief

Marcelo S. Alencar, UFCG, Brazil (malencar@iecom.org.br)
Celia Desmond, World Class, Canada (c.desmond@sympatico.ca)

Associate Editors

Microwaves and Optical Communications

Hugo Figueroa, Unicamp, Brazil
(hugo@dmo.fee.unicamp.br)
Adolfo Cartaxo, IST, Portugal
(adolfo.cartaxo@lx.it.pt)

Transmission Systems

Bahram Honary, Lancaster University, UK
